GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

RACING COMMISSION GRANTS LICENSE TO YONKERS,

But Case Will Be Taken to Court of Appeal Jockey Club, It Is Said, Will Ignore Application for Dates in August-Gates Says He's Not Betting Big Money

According to the report prevalent at Sheepshead Bay yesterday the State Racing Commission at a meeting held in the clubhouse lecided to grant a license to James Butler's Empire City track, in accordance with the reent mandamus issued by the Appellate Diidon of the Supreme Court, but it was stated this connection that the commission would take the case to the Court of Appeals when that body convenes in the fall. The mem hers of the racing commission would not talk for publication when asked about the matter, saying that the case was in the hands of their attorneys. It was stated, however, cense he will make a formal appliasion to the Jockey Club for dates in August. Mr. Butler makes this move the action o the Jockey Club will be awaited with much aw the Jockey Club is not compelled to grant dates at all. The law provides for forty of racing at each track in this State so that some persons are inclined to believe that the Jockey Club will take no notice of the Butler application. In that event it will in to the Empire track to conduct a meeting at Yonkers in August on its own responsi-

tion such a meeting it is a question whether horsemen who wish to be in favor with the urf authorities in this State will care to take part in the Yonkers meeting. But nobody without horses and bookmakers, for a bunch Western owners would jump at a chance race on a local track. There is so little ime, however, in which to arrange for stakes that it is generally believed that if Yonkers decides to take the field the quality of the sport there for this year at least will be below the usual standard. Mr. Butler has not as made public his plans, but it is said that he will begin the work of putting the Yonkers

John Boden, secretary of the Racing Comission, admitted last night that a license ad been granted to Yonkers under the terms of the mandamus, but that the case would be appealed. Beyond that Mr. Boden had nothing to say. It looks on the surface as if the Racing Commission and the Jockey Club had decided to fight Mr. Butler to a John W. Gates now says that the reports of his plunging at the racetrack have been. greatly exaggerated. After the races on Ibursday several well known bookmakers informed THE SUN man that Mr. Gates wagered $40,000 on Saylor in the last race, thile other well posted betting men who frequent the clubhouse stated that Mr. Gates placed $20,000 on Chapultepec. Yesterday Mr. Gates, with much feeling, informed THE N man that he wagered only $1,500 on Savior and $500 on Chapultepec.

Mr. Gates nsisted that he was not betting anything except a few pennies on the races yesterday. st before the fifth event Plunger Charle Ellison met Charles G. Gates in the paddock.

Tell your father that my horse Lancastrian annot lose this race and that he can go as he likes!" said Ellison. Lancastrian was ridden by E. Dugan and opened at oney and the price dropped to 3 to 5. Whether Mr. Gates accepted Ellison's tip not could not be learned, but the layers said after Lancastrian won that the ring paid out $70,000 and more on the victory of Ellison's racer. Aste seldom makes mistakes, so that this tip was freely taken, with the result that Gold Lady was backed down from 13 to 5 to 2 to 1. Altuda, the favorite, has not been in her best form this season and ran accordingly. Littleton Maid, who ran second in the Whitney colors, is a filly by Hamburg-Rose Standish. Mr. Gates, John A. Drake and others bet on Tony Faust in the Spindrift Handicap, the colt being backed from 6 to 4, but the early page spoiled the good thing. Those who took when Mr. Keene's Cabochon came home at 20 to 1. Previous winners of the Spindrift were St. Augustine, The Bard, Hanover, Raceland, My Fellow, Sir John, Potomac, Pickpocket, Glenmoyne, Henry of Navarre, Bright Phœbus, Formal, On Deck, Sailor King. On form it looked as if Jack Joyner's Hessian, a Watercress colt, who had been tipped as a possibility in the Futurity, had the lan race at his mercy. He opened at 6 to 5, but in spite of the play by the public he went back to 7 to 5. The Newcastle Stable's The Squire, meanwhile, was backed by the in-Long Ball was played across the board, Boots Durnell telling his friends that this colt would win to a certainty. Jack McGinnis had a supposed good thing in the race in Troublesome, who was backed down to 8, while Bob Tucker's Jane Swift was well taken 4. Horner put up a bad ride on Hessian, thile Miller came home with The Squire, with Long Ball in the place, so that there was a pretty thorough cleanup all around. It is said that the Whitney stable has dewhitney horses Jockey Koerner. The Whitney horses were ridden yesterday by teorge Mountain, who is under contract to August Belmont and R. F. Carman. Additional entries to the Saratoga cup are Yankee Girl, Tony Faust, Frank Gill, Bedouin, Go Between and Montfort.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
WIMBLEDON, July 5.—Miss May G. Sutton of Pasadena, Cal., to-day regained the all England championship in lawn tennis singles, defeating Mrs. Lambert Chambers in straight sets, 6-1, 6-4. It was an especial satisfaction to Miss Sutton to carry off the honors by beating Mrs. Chambers, because the latter as Miss D. K. Douglass defeated the California girl in 1906. It was Miss Douglass whom Miss Sutton beat in 1905, but the British player then was suffering from a sprain. When she deout the statements that she would have won the year before but for the injury.

Miss Sutton to-day was better in all points of her game except service. never has been very sharp, while Mrs. Cham-bers has developed a speedy and difficult delivery of the ball which puzzled her American rival at first but soon lost its terrors.

The match was watched with the greatest interest by an enormous crowd, and when the

The match was watched with the greatest interest by an enormous crowd, and when the last stroke was made and Miss Sutton had won she got a reception the like of which has never before been seen here. She was congratulated and applauded on all sides. Suddenly some one cried out, "Speech! Speech!" The call was taken up on all sides and finally the California girl had to say something. She got out of it by saying that she was very glad to have been able to win the title from so good a player as Mrs. Chambers, and added that she hoped to return next year to play for the title again.

The triumph in the singles was not the only victory for the California girl. She and Beals C. Wright, the former American champion, appeared in the final of the mixed doubles against Miss Booth and Prebble. They won without much difficulty, 6—1, 6—3.

The greatest setback for the American players came in the final round of the men's doubles. Beals C. Wright and Karl H. Behr, the American challengers for the Davis cup, were pitted against Norman E. Brookes and A. F. Wilding, the Australian challengers for the trophy. The Americans have not been together long as doubles players, but they did so well in the early matches that they had some hopes of pulling through. Brookes and Wilding won the match very handlily in straight sets, 6—4, 6—4. 6—2.

The especial interest in this match was caused by the fact that these players will meet within a fortnight in the preliminary tie for the Davis cup, and the result seems to show that the Americans will have to depend largely upon their success in singles if they hope to get through to meet the British defenders, of the trophy.

Dinna Ken Runs a Fine Race at a Mile -Palm's Steeplechase-Gold Lady, Lancastrian and The Squire Also Succeed at the Sheepshead Bay Track.

James R. Keene's Caboohon, a neglected 20 to 1 shot, won the Spindrift Handicap, for three-year-olds, one mile and a furlong, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. McCarter, 11 to 5 favorite, who made the pace, ran Tony Faust, 4 to 1, off his feet at the end of a mile, out the former had nothing left when Cabochon came with a rush at the sixteenth ole and won by a length and a half, in 1:53 2-5 McCarter had two lengths over Miniota, 10 to 1, who was running strongly at the end. Killaloe, 4 to 1, and Fountainblue, 8 to 1, were off poorly and were also carried wide on the lower turn.

H. P. Whitney's three-year-old Dinna Ken, 9 to 10 favorite, ran a remarkable race in the handloap at a mile. He was under a pull all the way, but ran over Far West, 7 to 1, the pacemaker, at the head of the stretch, in 1:39 2-5. Far West was second, three who beat Golf Ball, 8 to 1, a head.

Lancastrian, 3 to 5 favorite, had no trouble winning the handicap at a mile and a take him to the front on the far turn it was all over, for the Kingston gelding came home with two lengths to spare, in 2:35 4-5. Flim-nap, 8 to 1, ran into the place, three lengths before Trenola, 15 to 1, who beat Banker, 8 to 1,

The steeplechase over the short course was won in a gallop by Courtland H. Smith's Paim, backed from 3 down to 11 to 5 J. E. Widener's Dave Lewis, 40 to 1, ran second, four lengths before Belligerent, 11 to 5. Bayonet, 3 to 1, fell; also Merry Saint, 8 to 1, and Dr. Hellesworth. The time was 4:10:3-5.

A. L. Aste's Gold Lady, backed down to 3 to 1, was much the best in the first race, for three-year-old fillies, at six and a half furlongs, main track. She began slowly, but when Jack Martin let her down she breezed to the front and won by four lengths, in 1:19:3-5. H. P. Whitney's Littleton Maid, 10 to 1, took the place from Altuda, 8 to 5 favorite, who had early speed, by two lengths. The Newcastle Stable's The Squire, 8 to 1, made all the running in the last event, for maiden two-year-olds, six furlongs, and won handily by three parts of a length in 1:14:3-5. T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Lotg Ball, 10 to 1, who was prominent always, had a mortgage on the place, beating A. J. Jovner's Hessian, 7 to 5 favorite, by six lengths. The latter got a bungling ride from Horner. Three favorites won and the ring broke almost even. New Brunswick, July 5.—Tracy L. Smith of the Ross Hall Golf Club defeated Mortimer A. Wilson for the championship of the club yesterday in a contest that was exciting from start to finish, obtaining 72 in the morning and 74 in the afternoon. This is the sixth year in succession in which Smith has carried off the honors. For winning the championship Smith also won a handsome silver cup presented by the club and a silver selected score cup having a selected score of 65.

A woman's hairpin is the latest hazard of the links. In a recent competition at Iroon, Scotland, for the Hillhouse cup, open to not more than four competitors from any club in Ayrshire, there were twenty-nine players representing ten clubs. It was an eighteen hole scratch contest and J. L. C. Jenkins of Troon and Frank Peebles of St. Cuthbert tled at 78. Robert Andrew, who secured the cup for St. Cuthbert's last year with 75, went out with Jenkins, and the surmise that one or the other of them would be found at the top turned out correct, but it was not Andrew, although he was playing well up to a certain point and was out in 38. Playing to the twelfth hole a most extraordinary thing happened, Andrew's ball landing into a lady's hairpin, which must have been sticking in the ground points upward, as both points were firmly embedded in the ball. He struck his second well, but it went no distance, and he took four to get on to the green. As there was no rule bearing on the point he putted out with the hairpin adhering to his ball, but the latter ran right round about him, and he took six on the green. Of course this spoiled Andrew's chances. On arriving home the "echo of the Ladies" Championship" was the centre of attraction, and it is to be preserved as a curio.

"Is there any rule governing an extraordiroman's hairpin is the latest hazard of of attraction, and it is to be preserved as a curio.

"Is there any rule governing an extraordinary incident of this nature?" asks a Glen Bidge Golf Club member, who sent a newspaper clipping telling of the occurrence. He added: "I read it to an old Scotch golfer and be remarked 'Served Andrew richt for discardin' th' auld, hard gutty—as we'el play wi' a tautie, it's na' gowf!"

A ball so perforated would seem to be "unfit for play." Under rule 34 Andrew could have changed it on intimating to his opponent his intention to do so.

opponent his intention to do so.

Bob Simpson of the Omaha Country Club, who won the Western open championship last week at Hinsdale, is the first professional from west of the Mississippi River to gain the title. He hails from Carnoustie, Scotland, the native heath of his predecessor. Alex Smith, who defaulted is national and Western titles this year by going to Hoylake, Simpson did 84, 78, 73, 74-307. He also won the $50 for the best single round, for which Fred McLeod had tied him, by doing 35 for nine holes to McLeod's 39. McLeod and Will Anderson tied for second and third money at 309. As at the open championship, Anderson was sick and weak from cold and fever, and to gain his place under the circumstances was a wonderful performance.

Warren K, Wood, the young Homewood player, tied with Alex Baxter of La Grange for fourth and fifth at 313. He is the first smateur to finish "in the money" at the Western open championship, Last year Wood won the United North and South championship at Pineburst and he was runnerup to Sawyer in the Western amateur. He may upset some of the old favorites next week at the Euclid Club. Neither of the Egans started and Sawyer was also an absentee. The amateurs to make returns were separated by many strokes from Wood. They were Kenneth Edwards, 321; C. Evans. Jr., 328; Albert Seckel, 328; W. I. Howland, Jr., 335, and Alden B. Swift, 348. J. B. Hylan, winner of the Boston interscholastic in 1905 and runner-up last year, did not finish.

Brooklyn's only run was made in the fifth inning. Jordan hit athwart the wire screen into the right field seats. He was the first man up. Maloney grounded to Hannifan, and Lewis made a single, but Scanlan and Alperman did not pass the infield with their contributions. Shay made a good play in the eighth, which averted possible trouble. With one out Alperman singled. Casey spanked a grounder over second. It would have been a hit had there been nobedy on first, but Shay headed off the ball back of second base and tossed it to Dahlen for a force of Alperman. Shannon scored in the eighth on a base on balls, Browne's out at first, a base on balls to Devlin and Seymour's hit to right. By not keeping track of the number of outs the Brooklyns lost a chance in the second inning. Batch hit to left and Jordan to right. Maloney fanned the first out. Lewis raised a fly to ahort centre, and Batch and Jordan, instead of returning to their bases, kept on running. Batch, in fact, was past third when Dahlen threw to Shay at second and doubled him up. Doubles Title. championships of the Middle States in lawn, tennis advanced yesterday by very easy stages, so that all that was brought to a close was the tournament play in men's doubles. By playing two matches in the afternoon Raymond D. Little and Harold H. Hackett cleared away all their opponents and earned the right to meet William J. Clothier and William A. Larned in the challenge round of the doubles. Little being also a challenger for the singles title, which will be played for today, it is likely that there will be further delay in bringing the tournament to an end. The semi-final round of the doubles, in which Little and Hackett met Wylie C. Grant and H. L. Westfall, was productive of some very good tennis. By way of credit to the winners it may be said that Grant and Westfall never played better. They had the lead at 5-3 in the first set with Grant serving, but as soon as they reached the critical game they stopped hitting the ball.

Miss Marie Wagner played good tennis to defeat Miss Wimer in the semi-final round of the women's singles. She will have a good test to-day when she meets Miss Carrie B. Neely, the runner up in the national championships, in the final round.

On Board the Steamship Minneapolis, Which Leaves To-day.

The racing motor boat Dixie, owned by Commodore Edward J. Schroeder of the Motor Commodore Edward J. Schroeder of the Motor Boat Club of America, has been placed aboard the Minneapolis, which sails to-day from Pier 39 North River. The Dixie is the challenger for the much coveted international motor boat championship, the British international frophy now held by England, and it is the first time in the history of the sport in this country that a bona fide yacht club has ever challenged for this trophy. Dixie goes as representing the Motor Boat Club of America.

as representing the Motor Boat Club of America.

Commodore Schroeder may leave for England in time to be present at the races, which occur in Southampton waters off the Isle of Wight on August 3.

There appears to be a great deal of uncertainty concerning the actual competitors for the British international trophy. There has been up to this time but one official challenge received and that the Dixie. Up to within a fortnight ago neither the Rapiere II., or Panhard-Tellier had been entered, which boats are considered to be the best France possesses at this time. The English boats entered are Lord Howard de Walden's Daimier II., Napier III. by S. F. Edge, and a boat unnamed by E. S. Saunders. The latter has not as yet been tried out, and is said to be possessed of quite some speed. The Daimler II. has a new hull, but possesses the engines that were in Daimler I. of last year. In all probability the race will be confined to the Dixie and three of England's boats.

Automobile Note.

Automobile Note,

The local lawmakers of Cincinnati have not been very successful in framing motor vehicle regulations, as both motorists and authorities are not satisfied with the existing ordinance. One feature is that a jail sentence is provided for in certain cases which would necessitate a jury trial, in which case both parties agree that it would be impossible to secure a fair decision. It will now be left to the legal advisers of the Automobile Club of Cincinnati to draft an ordinance to replace the one now in force.
